

Explore

Weather App <sup>1.0</sup>

</spec>

Welcome

GET

/ Simple endpoint to see if server is working. Returns Hello World in h1 tags.

Parameters

Try it out

No parameters

Responses

Response content type

CodeDescription

Weather

GET

/get-weather Get current weather information for a specified city and country.

This endpoint retrieves current weather data from the OpenWeatherMap API. It requires a city name and country code as query parameters.

Parameters

Try it outName*Description

city * required
string

The name of the city to retrieve weather information for.

Name

Description

(query)

city

country * required

string

(query)

The ISO country code for the specified city.

country

Responses

Response content type

application/json

Code

Description

200

An object containing the current temperature and other weather details.

Example Value

Model

{

"description": "string",

"temperature": 0

}

400

Invalid request, such as missing or incorrect query parameters.

500

Internal server error or OpenWeatherMap API service failure.

default

GET

/spec

Swagger specification for our API.

^

Parameters

Try it out

No parameters

Responses

Response content type

application/json

localhost/api/docs/#!/default/get_spec

2/3

Code*Description

200

Swagger specification for our API.